GOVERNMENT FORMULATES EMIGRATION ARTICLES -- Tientsin Jih-pao, 5 Apr 50

Tientsin -- The Tientsin Municipal People's government held a session on the afternoon of 4 April 1950, with some 30 persons in attendance, and formulated the following articles governing emigration to the northern Chahar re-claimed areas:

1. The Emigration Activities Corps, established under the Emigration Committee, is made up of members from: Civil Affairs Bureau, Public Security Bureau, Labor Bureau, Tientsin Municipal Committee of the CCP, Central Labor Union, National Democratic Youth Federation, National Democratic Women's Federation. The corps is to assist the emigration program in all districts. Each ch'u will establish emigration organizations, through the Ch'u Public Office, with the Public Security Bureau Branch Office, Pedicab Union, and other allied groups.
2. Any person desiring to emigrate to northern Chahar may register at the public office handling the emigration program in each district, from today onward.
3. After their qualifications have been checked, registrants will assemble, by registered groups, at the Ninth District Red Cross Office and the Kiangsu Park, prior to starting out on their journey. Each district will have reception and send-off meetings.
4. Doctors and nurses will be sent from the Public Health Bureau to give medical care to the emigres en route.

It was also decided that a Municipal Emigration Committee would be set up within the Tenth District Civil Affairs Bureau, to begin operations today. The Emigration Activities Corps also decided to meet this morning to study steps toward effecting the emigration program.
